

KNIT WITH THEA & CROCHET WITH SUE

Koolhaas Hat

This beanie pattern by Jared Flood of Brooklyn Tweed originally appeared in Interweave Knits Holiday 2007 issue and has since become quite popular, clocking more than 6250 project on Ravelry, no doubt in part because it looks so nice on both men and women. It's also a great way to learn a couple of ways to cable without a cable needle, a very handy thing to know. Take this class and you'll get a good start on a hat that you might like so much you won't want to give it away!

Prerequisites: Cast on, bind off, knit and purl (and distinguish the two by sight)

Materials: Bring the pattern and all materials described in the pattern ($4.50 from www.brooklyntweed.net or www.ravelry.com/patterns/library/koolhaas) to the first class, and arrive having completed these instructions: Cast on 104 sts and join in the round, being careful not to twist sts. Work in k2, p2 rib (starting and ending each round with a single knit: k1, p2, k1) for 10 rows.

Cost: One 2-hour sessions; $25

Schedule: Monday, December 12, 7-9 PM

Paramount Beaded Cuff

This pattern by Megan Wood was inspired by the Art Deco design of the Paramount Theater in Oakland. The garter stitch construction makes it an easy project for beginners—with no purling required!—and the stretchy nature of garter stitch allows the cuff to slip quickly onto the wrist. This class will get you started on making one cuff; finish it for a fabulous bracelet for your next holiday party—or a warm and sparkly gift!

Prerequisites: Cast on, bind off, knit and purl (and distinguish the two by sight)

Materials: Bring the pattern and all the materials (beads, lace-weight yarn, and needles) to class. The pattern is a free download from Ravelry, www.ravelry.com/patterns/library/paramount-cuff

Cost: One 2-hour session; $25

Schedule: Monday, December 19, 7-9 PM
