We hope you'll be inspired to join us at the stitching social at BookShop WestPortal tonight—and every other Wednesday night— from 7 to 8:30 PM. Find your way to the back of the bookshop, through that sea of awesome books, at 80 West Portal Avenue.

Oh! And please do tell your friends that there are still a couple of spots left at the 2018 Knitting on the Coast retreat! Details about the classes, activities, and venue can be found at knittingonthecoast.com or in the retreat brochure.

Happy stitching!
Thea
